TEHILLAH ~Service of Praise

Welcome to Beit Gan-Eden! ~House [of] Paradise. We are gathered here in the name of our righteous Messiah, Yeshua, to worship our Heavenly Abba ~Father. Yeshua tells us. "Y'HoVaH is Spirit and worshipers must worship Him in spirit and in truth." Yochanan (John) 4:24. Shabbat Shalom, everyone!

TEFILLAH ~Service of Prayer

All sing: "Sh'ma Yisrael, Y'HoVaH Eloheinu, Y'HoVaH echad" (Deu 6:4)

"Baruch Shem kavod malchuto, le'olam va'ed! (Ps 72:18-19)

All say: "Hear, O Isra'el, Y'HoVaH our Elohim, Y'HoVaH is one!

Blessed be His Name. His glorious Kingdom is for ever and ever. Amein".

Leader: "V'ahavta et Y'HoVah elohecha b'kol l'vav'cha u'v'kol nafsh'cha u'v'kol m'odecha." All say: "And you shall love Y'HoVaH your Elohim with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your might. (Deut 6:5)

And Yeshua said: "Love your neighbour as yourself. All the Torah and the prophets are dependent on these two mitzvot." (Mat 22:37-40)

Leader: "Y'HoVaH hu Yeshua HaMashiach". (Phil 2:11; 1Cor 12:3; Luke 2:11)

All say: "Yeshua the Messiah He is LORD". Amen.

B'RACHOT YELEDIM ~Blessing the Children ברכות ילדים

Prayer for boys from Gen 27:27b-29. May Y'HoVaH make you, like Efrayim and M'nasheh ... Prayer for girls from Num 6:24-26. May Y'HoVaH make you, like Sarah, Rivkah, Rachel and Leah...

All pray together: "Heavenly Abba preserve these children for their fathers and mothers. May they be led into a life of obedience and faith through the Tanakh and Ketuvei HaShelichim. Blessed are You, Yah of Avraham, Yitz'hak and Ya'akov, who watches over these precious children of Your servants. We ask this in Yeshua's Name, Amein.

SHABBAT SHUL ~School (Held during Torah readings & Drash)

Children ages 6 (Prep) to 12 may attend with Mark and Rachel. Younger children may attend with a parent. Shabbat Shul begins in room (F4) across the passage way, straight after "Blessing the Children" and prior to the Parashah readings.

Shabbat Shul ends at the start of the "Yeshua Remembrance Service".

Parents, please resume proactive responsibility for your children during and after the Remembrance Service. Corridors and other common areas of the Southport Community Centre are not play areas. Parents please be mindful.

PRAYER FOR THE LOST SHEEP OF THE HOUSE OF ISRAEL (Mat 15:24).

Netanyahu's Trumpy Re-Election Bid Divides America's Jewish Community

The embattled Israeli prime minister has embraced fear tactics along with his American ally, and Jewish-American groups are angry.

By Yardena Schwartz March 25, 2019

TEL AVIV – On March 17, Michael Ben Ari, the leader of Israel's most controversial political party, was doing what politicians here do during an election campaign: rushing to the scene of the latest terror attack. That day, a rabbi and father of 12 was driving in the West Bank when he was shot and killed by a Palestinian gunman.

"Kahane was right," Ben Ari told me, referring to the late American rabbi Meir Kahane, a Jewish extremist who was assassinated in Manhattan in 1990, and whose political party "Kach" was banned in Israel and labeled a terrorist group in the United States. Ben Ari, who was denied a U.S. visa over ties to a terror group, established "Otzma Yehudit" in 2012. The party's name literally means Jewish Power and is the reincarnation of Kach, led by some of Kahane's closest associates and disciples.

Until a few weeks ago, Jewish Power was on the very fringes of Israeli politics. Since its establishment in 2012, it has failed to win enough votes to enter Israel's parliament, the Knesset. It was bound to meet that fate in the elections coming up in April, with polls projecting it winning just 1 percent of votes (the minimum threshold is 3.25 percent). Enter Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu, who is fighting for his political survival amid an unprecedented challenge from his chief opponent, and possible indictments in three criminal cases.

In late February, in a bid to secure power, Netanyahu did what many deemed unthinkable: He brought Jewish Power into mainstream Israeli politics, orchestrating its merger with two more moderate right-wing parties. To seal the deal, Netanyahu promised the newly merged "Union of Right-Wing Parties" two cabinet posts if he wins reelection. If he does, Netanyahu will replace Israel's founding leader, David Ben Gurion, as the nation's longest serving prime minister—having done so by embracing a party that calls openly for the segregation of Jews and Arabs, the imposition of halacha (the Jewish equivalent of sharia law) and economic incentives to rid Israel of its Arab citizens, who make up 20 percent of the population.

“The time is over for those who think that Jews will not fight back when we are attacked,” is how Ben Ari describes Jewish Power's ethos.

A few hours after we spoke, Israel's Supreme Court disqualified Ben Ari from running in the April 9 elections due to his incitement to racism. The 8-1 ruling followed unprecedented criticism from American Jewish organizations, including AIPAC, which rarely criticizes Israel in public. It was the first time in Israeli history the high court had banned an individual candidate from running. The last time a party was disqualified was in 1992. It was also connected to Kahane.

Ben Ari is angry at the American Jewish community, which he believes is meddling where it shouldn't be. “What is this American Jewish community?” he said. “It's a dream! Israel is the Jewish community!” American Jews, he adds, should “wake up and come home.” As for their criticism of his party, which AIPAC called “racist and reprehensible,” Ben Ari says, “There is no greater chutzpah than to sit there in America and preach morality to me. When the anti-Semitism in America leads them here to live free as Jews, it will be my sons, IDF combat soldiers, who will protect them.”

As for Netanyahu, the initial outcry over his embrace of Jewish Power has died down, and he has recovered his footing in the polls. And with President Donald Trump's recognition of Israeli sovereignty over the Golan Heights, he can credibly claim that he has the endorsement of a very powerful sponsor: the United States of America.

“For Netanyahu it is a question of doing whatever it takes with little normative inhibitions in order to ensure his victory,” said Yohanan Plesner, president of the Israel Democracy Institute, a non-partisan Israeli think tank.

But any victory may be a Pyrrhic one. Though Ben Ari has been disqualified, one Jewish Power candidate remains on the ballot: Itamar Ben Gvir, an attorney known for defending Israeli extremists accused of Jewish terrorism. Whether or not Ben Gvir ends up in Knesset, Netanyahu's embrace of his party has already caused an unprecedented rift with the American Jewish community.

“We are particularly troubled when fringe groups that try to threaten Israel's founding ideals are brought into the mainstream," said Avi Mayer, assistant executive director of the American Jewish Committee. This is why, he continues, "we departed from our longstanding practice of refraining from commenting on domestic Israeli politics to express our alarm."

"I can't remember a case where AIPAC, the Anti-Defamation League and the American Jewish Committee all condemned so vigorously an internal Israeli political move," said Yossi Klein Halevi, a leading American-Israeli journalist and author who grew up in Brooklyn as a member of Kahane's Jewish Defense League. He has since renounced Kahanism, whilst Netanyahu is now taking the movement mainstream.

Though the prime minister's mainstreaming of Jewish Power may represent the breaking point, the rift between Netanyahu and the American Jewish community has been years in the making. In his decade as prime minister, Netanyahu has created the most right-wing government in Israeli history. From his controversial 2015 speech to Congress in which he rebuked then-President Barack Obama—who the vast majority of American Jews supported—to his love affair with President Donald Trump—who a majority of American Jews voted against—Netanyahu has often been at odds with American Jews.

Netanyahu has waged Trumpian battles throughout his reelection campaign, calling his corruption scandals a political witch hunt; claiming the media seeks to overthrow him; and tarring his political rivals as "weak leftists." In one of the stranger episodes, Netanyahu waged an Instagram feud pitting him against the country's president, one of its leading actresses, and Gal Gadot, the Israeli actress who plays Wonder Woman. After actress Rotem Sela criticized the Likud party for allegedly vilifying Israel's Arab citizens, Netanyahu responded, "Israel is not a state of all its citizens," but rather "the nation-state of the Jewish people alone."

Netanyahu's tactics appear to be working. According to a March IDI poll, just 19 percent of Israelis believe Netanyahu's corruption scandals will influence the election. Another found that 42 percent believe Netanyahu's allegations that the attorney general—whom the prime minister appointed—capitulated to pressure from the media and the left in announcing his intention to indict him.

Beware the Useful Idiots

submitted by Garret Geer

Recall that Hillary did her college thesis on his writings and Obama writes about him in his books.

Saul Alinsky died about 43 years ago, but his writings influenced those in political control of our nation today.

Died: June 12, 1972, Carmel-by-the-Sea, CA

Education: University of Chicago

Spouse: Irene Alinsky

Books: Rules for Radicals, Reveille for Radicals

Anyone out there think that this stuff isn't happening today in the U.S.?

All eight rules are currently in play.

How to create a social state by Saul Alinsky:

There are eight levels of control that must be obtained before you are able to create a social state. The first is the most important.

1) Healthcare – Control healthcare and you control the people.

2) Poverty – Increase the Poverty level as high as possible; poor people are easier to control and will not fight back if you are providing everything for them to live.

3) Debt – Increase the debt to an unsustainable level. That way you are able to increase taxes, and this will produce more poverty.

4) Gun Control– Remove the ability to defend themselves from the government. That way you are able to create a police state.

5) Welfare – Take control of every aspect of their lives (Food, Housing, and Income).

6) Education – Take control of what people read and listen to – take control of what children learn in school.

7) Religion – Remove the belief in the God from the government and schools.

8) Class Warfare – Divide the people into the wealthy and the poor. This will cause more discontent, and it will be easier to take (tax) the wealthy with the support of the poor.

.Does any of this sound like what is happening to the United States?

Alinsky merely simplified Vladimir Lenin's original scheme for world conquest by communism, under Russian rule. Stalin described his converts as "Useful Idiots."

The Useful Idiots have destroyed every nation in which they have seized power and control. It is presently happening at an alarming rate in the U.S.

"It is difficult to free fools from the chains they revere."

Following the NZ FF event; the NZ PM announced implementation of Item 4 in the above list. Also, Australian ISP (Internet Service Providers) Telstra, Vodafone, etc., used their DNS (Domain Name System) to block access to <https://8ch.net> and others. However <https://qanon.pub> and <https://qmap.pub> are unaffected. Changing the DNS setting in one's WiFi router, can restore open access. e.g. Preferred DNS server: 1,1,1,1 with Alternate DNS server: 1,0,0,1 or 8,8,8,8 with 8,8,4,4.

YESHUA REMEMBRANCE SERVICE

Leader: ³¹ "Here, the days are coming," says Y'HoVaH, "when I will make a new Covenant with the house of Isra'el and with the house of Y'hudah. ³² It will not be like the covenant I made with their fathers on the day I took them by their hand and brought them out of the land of Egypt; because they, for their part violated My Covenant, even though I, for my part, was a husband to them," says Y'HoVaH. ³³ "For this is the Covenant I will make with the house of Israel after those days," says Y'HoVaH, "I will put My Torah within them and write it on their hearts; I will be their Elohim, and they will be My people. (Yirem'yahu ~Jeremiah 31:31-33

Congregation: Isa 12:2 "See! Elohim is my salvation; I am confident and unafraid; for Y'HoVaH Elohim is my strength and my song, and He has become my salvation!" Isa 12:3 Then you will joyfully draw water from the springs of salvation. Ps 3:8 Victory comes from Y'HoVaH; may Your blessing rest on Your people. Ps 46:7 Y'HoVaH Tzva'ot is with us, our fortress, the Elohim of Ya'akov.

Leader: "Baruch ata Y'HoVaH, Eloheinu Melech Ha'olam, ha motze lechem m'in ha eretz."

Divide Chullah ~platted loaf

Congregation: "Blessed are You Y'HoVaH our Elohim, King of the Universe who has brought forth bread from the earth. Y'HoVaH Tzva'ot, how happy is anyone who trusts in You! (Ps 84:12). Give victory Y'HoVaH! Let the King answer us the day we call. (Ps 20:9) I will take the cup of redemption and call upon the Name, Y'HoVaH. (Ps 116:13).

Leader: (with cup in right hand) "The cup of deliverance I raise and in the Name of Y'HoVaH, Yeshua HaMashiach, I call: Baruch atah Y'HoVaH, Eloheinu Melech, ha'olam, boray p'ri ha'gafen." (Replace cup with spices)

Congregation: Blessed are You, Y'HoVaH our Elohim, King of the universe, who creates the fruit of the vine.

Leader: Lifting spice container in right hand, says... "Baruch atah Y'HoVaH, Eloheinu Melech ha'olam, boray meenee besamim."

Congregation: Blessed are You, Y'HoVaH our Elohim, King of the universe, who creates the various spices.

Leader: As Avram gave to Malki-Tzedek according to B'resheet ~Genesis 14:18-20, let us all come, make our offering, take some Chullah; smell the spices; take your cup and return to your seats and wait, so we can partake together.

Leader: Pray in relation to what Yeshua has done in connection with the day's Torah portion. "Let us eat and drink together".

Aharonic Blessing (Hebrew & English) from Tamar & Malachi (Num 6:22-27)

Leader: Our Abba and Elohim of our fathers, we thank you for the joy and rest of this Shabbat. May the coming week bring gladness & peace, health & achievement. Like the fragrance of the besamim, we pray that the days ahead bring sweetness to our lives and the lives of our loved ones. May the peace, which we are enjoying linger till we gather for Shabbat next week.

We ask this in Yeshua's name, Amein.
