BRUSSELS COURTS RULE AGAINST ALL CORONAVIRUS MEASURES

From the Brussels Times
The Belgian State has been ordered to lift “all coronavirus measures” within 30 days, as the legal basis for them is insufficient, a Brussels court ruled on Wednesday.

The League for Human Rights had filed the lawsuit several weeks ago and challenged Belgium's system of implementing the measures using Ministerial Decrees, which means it is done without any input from parliament.

Brussels Court rules against all coronavirus measures including lock ups and masking healthy people by the state.

The judge gave the Belgian State 30 days to provide a sound legal basis, or face a penalty of €5,000 per day that this period is exceeded, with a maximum limit of €200,000, reports Le Soir.

The current coronavirus measures are based on the Civil Safety Act of 2007, which enable the State to react quickly in “exceptional circumstances,” but the judge has now ruled that these laws cannot serve as a basis for the Ministerial Decrees.

“The judge ruled that the principle of legality has been violated because the current way of working is not foreseeable enough,” Kati Verstrepen of the Human Rights League confirmed to VRT, adding the consequences are “not so dramatic” that from one day to the next, the measures would no longer be valid.

For the time being, the current coronavirus measures will not change, and the verdict is currently being studied by the office of Interior Minister Annelies Verlinden, reports De Standaard.

It is possible to legally skirt the current regulations regarding the mask mandate in Queensland, if you can match one of the following conditions. The health clause could apply to everyone!

This is the law as it stands. Interstate readers may check their State Government regulations.

- A person with a particular medical condition or disability.

- A person undergoing medical treatment.

6000% Increase in US Reported Vaccine Deaths 1st Quarter 2021 Compared to 1st Qtrr 2020

These new products, which many doctors and scientists claim do not even meet the legal definition of a "vaccine," are described by the manufacturers themselves as "operating systems" called the "software of life," and prior to COVID they have never been approved to be used on human populations. There are literally thousands of doctors and scientists around the world who have spoken out against these experimental injections. Read More... Former Pfizer Chief Scientific Officer on Experimental COVID Injections: "I Have Absolutely no Doubt that we are in the Presence of Evil"

<https://healthimpactnews.com/>

Dr. Mike Yeadon is a scientist who is ... the former Vice President and Chief Scientific Officer of the Allergy & Respiratory Research division within the pharmaceutical company Pfizer.

He has an insider perspective on the new experimental COVID injections, and has been trying to sound the alarm on them since last year (2020). He was recently interviewed by Mordechai Sones, who earlier this month was named as the

News Director for America's Frontline

Doctors.

Dr. Yeadon stated: "I'm well aware of the global crimes against humanity being perpetrated against a large proportion of the worlds population. I have absolutely no doubt that we are in the presence of evil (not a determination I've ever made before in a 40-year research career) and dangerous products.

In the U.K., it's abundantly clear that the authorities are bent on a course which will result in administering 'vaccines' to as many of the population as they can. This is madness, because even if these agents were legitimate, protection is needed only by those at notably elevated risk of death from the virus. In those people, there might even be an argument that the risks are worth bearing. And there definitely are risks which are what I call 'mechanistic': inbuilt in the way they work.

But all the other people, those in good health and younger than 60 years, perhaps a little older, they don't perish from the virus. In this large group, it's wholly unethical to administer something novel and for which the potential for unwanted effects after a few months is completely uncharacterized. In no other era would it be wise to do what is stated as the intention.

Since I know this with certainty, and I know those driving it know this too, we have to enquire: What is their motive?

While I don't know, I have strong theoretical answers, only one of which relates to money and that motive doesn't work, because the same quantum can be arrived at by doubling the unit cost and giving the agent to half as many people. Dilemma solved. So it's something else.

Appreciating that, by entire population, it is also intended that minor children and eventually babies are to be included in the net, and that's what I interpret to be an evil act. There is no medical rationale for it. Knowing as I do that the design of these 'vaccines' results, in the expression in the bodies of recipients, expression of the spike protein, which has adverse biological effects of its own which, in some people, are harmful (initiating blood coagulation and activating the immune 'complement system'), I'm determined to point out that those not at risk from this virus should not be exposed to the risk of unwanted effects from these agents.

Super Varients and Leaky vaccines

Mordechai Sones asked Dr Yeadon: "My understanding of a "leaky vaccine" is that it only lessens symptoms in the vaccinated, but does not stop transmission; it therefore allows the spread of what then becomes a more deadly virus.

"Stronger strains usually would not propagate through a population because they kill the host too rapidly, but if the vaccinated experience only less-serious disease, then they spread these strains to the unvaccinated who contract serious disease and die. Do you agree with this assessment?

Dr Yeadon: I think the Gerrt Vanden Bossche story is highly suspect. There is no evidence at all that vaccination is leading or will lead to 'dangerous variants'.

As a general rule, variants form very often, routinely, and tend to become less dangerous & more infectious over time, as it comes into equilibrium with its human host. Variants generally don't become more dangerous... ..all variants are at least 99.7% identical to the Wuhan sequence.

It's a fiction, and an evil one at that, that variants are likely to "escape immunity". I cannot say strongly enough: The stories around variants and need for top up vaccines are FALSE. I am concerned there is a very malign reason behind all this.

PLEASE warn every person not to go near top up vaccines. There is absolutely no need to them.

Yet they're being made in pharma, and regulators have stood aside (no safety testing),

I can only deduce they will be used for nefarious purposes. For example, if someone wished to harm or kill a significant proportion of the worlds population over the next few years, the systems being put in place right now will enable it.

It's my considered view that it is entirely possible that this will be
