The French Military Warns Macron of a Military Coup

The French military warned Emmanuel Macron they are considering removing him from power. What does that mean for the rest of the world?

women live together or spend time in close proximity, their menstrual cycles naturally synchronize. While that is a natural phenomenon, what has been happening recently is decidedly unnatural. Chloe Angeline (“Self-Healing Mama”), who works as a holistic reproductive practitioner and doula, and is in touch with fertility and pregnancy communities, put out this video last week warning people, <https://tinyurl.com/yebntmyp> especially women, to be careful of other women who have been COVID vaxxed.

Unvaccinated women have been suffering intense and negative period pain just by being around COVID vaxxed women. She suggests that the COVID vaccine is directly related to infertility and sterilization.

Here is what she said:

“Women, in their menstruating years and not, are experiencing severe side effects from people around them having received this jab. We're not quite sure what's happening here; it's happening too quick for us to really know ... we're having women miss their periods, we're having women have the most excruciating periods of their life to the point where they are bleeding so profusely that it is completely out of character. Women who are in menopause have gotten their period back ... in this community, something that is well known is that if a women bleeds, and she is postmenopausal, that it is cancer.”

START SOCIAL DISTANCING FROM VACCINATED VICTIMS OR GET STERILISED FROM SHEDDING

COVID gene therapy affects women greatly and negatively affecting menstrual cycles of unvaccinated women

It is well known that, when

“This is about standing up for the health of humanity ... something is happening behind the scenes and they are coming after women's health ... it is significantly dropping men's sperm counts ... they are trying to sterilize us ... we've seen miscarriage go up by almost 400%.”

Nurse warns of stillbirth

“A lot of people want to call it shedding, but when people think of shedding, they are thinking ... of the weakened viral [vaxxes] but that's not what this is. This is gene therapy that is causing your body to make these spike proteins, this is mRNA gene therapy, this is ... human experimentation, this is not anything that's been done before. It is in fact altering the human makeup of the body ... that process starts in the human body and doesn't stop. It's coming out in their breath, it's coming out through their pores, so spike proteins ... this is what is causing reproductive problems in people, this is what is causing sterilization of people.

Women ... and men ... who have come into contact with people who have had this [vax] ... have suddenly become covered in strange bruises ... women as young as 10 years old starting their periods early, 11 year olds getting 2 periods in a month, people getting severe migraines ... people having clots the size of their fists, people that were in menopause for years suddenly having severe periods ... men [whose spouse had the vaccine] go to bed and wake up covered in bruises.

There's a risk of people having stillborn or damaged fetuses if they're around people who have had this [COVID vax] because it can affect and cause miscarriages ... There's no way of knowing if the human body will ever shut off this mechanism of producing the spike proteins, so the people that get the [vax] may produce them forever ...”

59-Year-Old Israeli Fashion Icon Alber Elbaz DEAD After Being "Fully Vaccinated" for COVID-19

April 27, 2021 5:13 pm

Another public figure has died following injections of the experimental COVID shots. Israeli fashion icon Alber Elbaz has reportedly died at an American hospital in Paris, France, over the weekend.

The French Press (Elbaz worked and lived in France) and many of the European Press have originally reported that his cause of death was "unknown," but Israeli Press are now reporting that he died of the "South African variant of COVID-19," while admitting that he was "fully vaccinated." His death was described by some as "sudden."

We are not sure why the Israeli Press is claiming he died from the "South African strain of coronavirus," since he was hospitalized and died in Paris, but that is what they are claiming, while at the same time acknowledging that he was "fully vaccinated."

Since it is being reported that he was "fully vaccinated," that means he probably received two doses of one of the experimental COVID injections, most likely either the Pfizer or Moderna mRNA shot, both of which are available in France.

Many thousands of people worldwide have now been reported dead following injections of these experimental COVID shots, many of them high profile public figures like Mr. Elbaz where it is difficult to hide their deaths and the circumstances surrounding them, and yet the medical authorities continue to claim that they are all "coincidences" and not related to the COVID shots.

As we have previously reported, deaths following the COVID injections and are reported to the CDC VAERS system, now exceed deaths reported following FDA approved vaccines for the past 15 years COMBINED.

The World Health Organization, the United Nations, the Rockefeller Foundation, and many others have been saying for years that we need to reduce the world's population in order to save the Earth from being destroyed by climate change.

So why should it surprise people that they are now putting their plans into action to reduce the world's population through these experimental injections?

This is no longer a "conspiracy theory." It is a plan being executed in full view of the public, most of whom are still asleep and expecting the world to go back to "normal" if they just keep obeying everything the medical tyrants tell them to do, and surrender all their freedoms.

And in many cases, as we are now seeing, they are sacrificing their lives as well.

So believe what you want, and live with the consequences. Because the facts that both sides agree upon, are that Mr. Elbaz got the shots, and now he is dead.

He joins a very fast growing list of others that also got the shots, and are now DEAD.
