Covid vax spreading virus in previously clean areas such as the tropics

W.H.O. doesn't have evidence vaccines prevent people transmitting virus to others

29/12/2020

The WHO has warned it does not have evidence COVID-19 vaccines prevent people from passing the virus on to other people and require the same precautions as people without the jab – such as quarantine. WHO Chief Scientist Dr Soumya Swaminathan made the remarks after the media questioned whether people who get vaccinated would still need to quarantine when visiting countries with low transmission rates. “I don't believe we have the evidence on any of the vaccines to be confident that it's going to prevent people from actually getting the infection and therefore being able to pass it on,” Dr Swaminathan said in a media conference. “Until we know more, we need to assume that people who have been vaccinated also need to take the same precautions until there is a certain level of herd immunity. “What we're learning now, and we continue to wait for more results from the vaccine trails, is to really understand if these vaccines, apart from preventing symptomatic disease and severe disease and deaths, whether they're also going to reduce infections or prevent people from getting infected with the virus, prevent them from passing it on, or transmitting it to other people. “This is a dynamic and evolving field, and I think our understanding and our recommendations will change as we get more follow-up data from these trials.”

COVID cabals bribes and threats falter as courts expose PCR testing fraud

REINER Fuellmich, the German lawyer going after the WHO and other parties over the fraudulent, panic-inducing COVID PCR tests and related matters, says a “Nuremberg II” court may be needed to prosecute the key players in the global scam.

He says the offenders are among a group of several thousand “super rich” people including Klaus Schwab, chief of the World Economic Forum and people associated with him.

“They bribe doctors, hospital workers and politicians. People who do not cooperate are threatened. They use all kinds of psychological techniques to manipulate people,” Fuellmich recently told South African blogger “Jerm Warfare”.

Reiner Fuellmich (right) online with South African blogger “Jerm Warfare”.

In the interview Fuellmich cited two court cases ruling against the validity of PCR tests – one last year in an appellate court in Portugal and one at the time of the interview (early April) in Vienna won by the Austrian Populist Party (FPÖ) whose meeting in January had been shut down by authorities on the basis of COVID. Fuellmich said there would be more cases that would support the class action. The two cases he referred to found against the legality of lockdowns or quarantine based on PCR testing which courts found to be seriously flawed.

In a related case a German district court ruled the state of Thuringia's Infection Protection Act was “not a sufficient legal basis for such a far-reaching regulation as a contact ban”. The order of the contact ban had violated human dignity and had not been proportionate. In another case overturned on appeal, The Hague Court ruled the COVID-19 lockdown imposed by the Dutch Govt had no legal basis. The appeals judges argued that they wanted to avoid what they called a “yo-yo effect,” referring to public confusion around whether the curfew was still in force. The Netherlands has seen major protests against COVID lockdowns

Midway through 2020, Fuellmich revealed his plans to take the WHO to court for crimes against humanity. Having beaten the giant VW corporation in the diesel emissions case and leading actions against Deutsche Bank and Kuehne and Nagel, the world's largest shipping company, he is regarded as one of the most powerful lawyers in Europe. “There is light at the end of the tunnel,” he told Jerm Warfare. “We have won lawsuits and there'll be more such cases. We're close to a tipping point. These are the worst crimes against humanity ever committed.”

“The few people who can still think independently, about 10 to 20 percent of the population, know that this was never about a virus or health, but about the thinning of the world's population and control,” Fuellmich said. “The corona vaccines have nothing to do with vaccination, but are part of genetic experiments.”

Fuellmich does not give those pushing the pandemic credit for being entirely clever. His team's research has revealed that the players make a lot of mistakes behind the scenes. For example, he believes the vaccine makers did not expect that so many side effects would already occur.

A whistleblower who spoke to Fuellmich the entire scenario was originally planned for 2050, but the people pulling the strings became greedy and it was decided to implement the plans much earlier, according to the whistleblower. "I think that's why they make so many mistakes," said Fuellmich, who is one of four members of the German Corona Investigative Committee that has taken statements from more than 100 scientists and experts since July 10, 2020.

Fuellmich also spoke to the WHO whistleblower Dr Astrid Stuckleberger who said Switzerland is the center of corruption, and that GAVI (Global Alliance for Vaccines and Immunisation) and Bill Gates have total immunity from everything they do.

WHO whistleblower Dr Astrid Stuckleberger, a prominent player in the implementation of global health regulations, has supplied Fuellmich's team with much insider information.

She said WHO's rules for working with countries virtually put WHO in charge of all pandemic rules, edicts and announcements and Gates (the second biggest contributor to the WHO after the US before Trump), was part of the executive board "like an unofficial member state, making decisions that affect the entire world".

In a statement posted online last year, Fuellmich said the corruption cases with Deutsche Bank, VW and Kuehne and Nagel paled in comparison in view of the extent of the damage that the corona crisis has caused and continues to cause and those responsible for it must be criminally prosecuted and sued for civil damages.

The Corona Investigative Committee investigations trace the beginnings of the "plandemic" back to May 2019 when Germany's governing coalition, the CDU, held a Congress on Global Health, apparently at the instigation of important players from the pharmaceutical industry and the tech industry.

Fuellmich said "the usual suspects" gave their speeches at the congress. Angela Merkel was there, and the German Secretary of Health, Jens Spahn. Also attending were Professor Drosten, virologist from the Charite Hospital in Berlin; Professor Wieler, veterinarian and Head of the RKI, the German equivalent of the CDC; Mr Tedros, philosopher and Head of the World Health Organization (WHO) and; the chief lobbyists of the world's two largest health funds – the Bill and Melinda Gates Foundation and the Wellcome Trust.

“Less than a year later, these very people called the shots in the proclamation of the worldwide corona pandemic, made sure that mass PCR tests were used to prove mass infections with Covid-19 all over the world, and are now pushing for vaccines to be invented and sold worldwide.”

False Flag "COVID-19 Pandemic" Depopulation Program Exposed Iatrogenic Death Cult - Dr. Ben Edwards -

Iatrogenesis is the causation of a disease, a harmful complication, or other ill effect by any medical activity, including diagnosis, intervention, error, or negligence.

First used in this sense in 1924, the term was introduced to sociology in 1976 by Ivan Illich, alleging that industrialized societies impair quality of life by overmedicalizing life.

"I transitioned from Conventional Family Practice Medicine to Integrative Medicine integrating our God-given natural ability for the body to fix itself and it's clear in the literature that if we steward this God-given design through nutrition, proper nutrition, hydration, exercise, sunlight, most importantly peace, not fear - fear has overcome this nation. This Spirit of Fear that I do not submit to, has overcome this nation, in my opinion - and if that is influencing policy decisions, I don't want to have to be subjected to those policies. So yes, there is much that you can do to improve your immune system, and it sounds too simple but it's true. Eat God's food, not man's food, exercise, get some sunlight, move around a little bit, and most importantly be at peace. Your immune system will do what it is designed to do. Thank you."
