National disgrace: AMA steps around vaccine-related death after TGA bans Covidtreatment

NOV 10 by Editor, cairnsnews

Dr Chris Perry of the AMA's Queensland branch dared not tell the real reason why Aboriginal communities are "vaccine hesitant". The "eminent physician" blamed conspiracy theories..

By TONY MOBILIFONITIS

Dr CHRIS Perry of the Queensland branch of the AMA appeared on ABC radio this week moaning about low levels of vaccine uptake in Aboriginal communities like Cherbourg. But the highfalutin doctor didn't have the guts to mention the death of Aboriginal elder Bevan Costello, who died six days after his much-publicised vaccine in Cherbourg in September.

According to Perry and his OAMladen public health ruling class, deaths that happen after vaccination are simply part of the 3000 weekly deaths that occur in Australia normally. This is "statistics, damned lies and statistics". Most of those 3000 are the octogenarians, not people like Bevan Costello who looked reasonably fit and well, and was certainly not in his 70s or 80s.

When asked by his ABC interviewer about the number of deadly adverse events in Australia, the doctor claimed there had "only been about 10 deaths from vaccines", and specifically the ones that caused blood clots. No doc, the official statistics from the TGA in May 2020 were 210 post-vaccination deaths.

Corporate health bureaucrat Skerrit bestows his most holy blessing upon a vaccine lab early in the plandemic.

There are almost certainly hundreds more since then, but Adjunct Professor John Skerrit's crowd at the TGA have been doing their best to cover them up.

There is also the rash of heart attacks suffered by healthy teens and young adults worldwide after mRNA vaccinations. Some of them die and others appear to recover, but the long-term effects of pericarditis and myocarditis (external and internal heart muscle inflammation) are potentially serious.

Nevertheless, the AMA doctor, egged on by the reporter asking why there were such high levels of vaccine hesitancy in the remote communities, blamed "conspiracy theories".

Our guess is they had seen the Cairns News' report on the Cherbourg death but dared not mention our name for fear of publicising the story even more. Too bad ABC and AMA, Cairns News gets tens of thousands of views every week without your help.

Health statistics from two Indian states make a mockery of the Australian TGA's claims that ivermectin is dangerous and ineffective and vaccines are the only effective treatment.

Skerrit's infamy goes back to September, when he and whoever works closely with him in his elite bureaucratic heights, banned the medicine ivermectin. They disingenuously claimed it was dangerous above certain dosages. So is just about every drug on the market.

They also made the ludicrous claim that it faced a shortage for its normal prescription use for lupus, scabies and other parasitic infections. In fact more enlightened public health officers in the Indian state of Uttar Pradesh (pop. 26m) give away prescription packs to infected families. The case numbers in that state, with only a 9% vaccination rate, have dropped spectacularly.

But the highest of our eminent public health authorities don't listen to people from "places like India". They are still living in their Anglo-centric colonial world that sees the British-US medical establishment as the fount of all scientific wisdom.

The reality is these people pushing the totalitarian lockdowns and mandates don't make such decisions based on real scientific inquiry. They're following orders that filter down from above via the WHO, Pfizer, the Wellcome Trust and Gates and Rockefeller foundations.

This is exactly why Morrison and the premiers are desperately fighting FOI requests for the alleged science behind the so-called health orders. It's also why Andrews is attempting to institute a fully fascist regime in Victoria, beholden to his whims and any suspicion of a virus lurking anywhere, anytime.

Skerrit's TGA are extraordinary hypocrites. If regular Australian parents in a household deprived a child of a medicine that could have stopped that child's serious injury or death, the TGA would be on their case to ensure they were criminally charged with child abuse and neglect. There have been such cases, but when a so-called Skerrit deprives Australians of a potentially life saving medicine, Skerrit probably gets a bonus gong after his name.

Skerrit, like his big shot US health bureaucrat colleague Anthony Fauci, is a snake. In biblical times he would have fitted in among among the Pharisees, who Jesus condemned as a "brood of vipers". There's little to distinguish that notorious sect of word and truth twisters from today's super bureaucrats like Fauci and Skerrit.

The viper injects poison into it's victim, then lets it go free to wait for it to die. In Skerrit's case he inserts a poisonous distortion of truth into the public service rules and people die as a result. Hospitals are being co-opted into this diabolical scheme. They falsely claim that serious COVID cases can only be put on ventilators, when that practice was shown to be very dangerous very early in the plandemic.

Also Watch 'Skerrits "Yes Minister" performance with Queensland Senator Gerard Rennick (one of the few LNP names worthy of mention) who questioned him at length about ivermectin. Skerrit cleverly maintains a cool, measured countenance when Rennick calls him out on a number of points – for instance the WHO's classification of ivermectin as an essential, safe drug, when Skerrit and his accomplices claim otherwise.

Dr Vladimir Zelenko of New York

had an almost 100% success rate treating 1000 or more serious cases early in the outbreak with hydroxychloroquine, zinc and antibiotics, but of course was ignored by Fauci, his medical establishment and their jackal media hirelings. Zelenko now accuses the same US FDA with genocide and premeditated murder of some 700,000 Americans.

The truly revealing and criminal banning of alternative COVID-19 treatments is very likely part of Australia's contract with the criminal pharma gangsters Pfizer, who had the gall to demand Argentina hand over its military bases as collateral in their borrowings for their vaccine contract.

The fact that the powers that be don't want competition to vaccines is admitted in the TGA's spurious reasons for banning ivermectin: "The Department is concerned that there are a number of significant public health risks associated with this practice including, for example, that persons taking ivermectin in an effort to prevent COVID-19 consider themselves to be protected against the disease, elect not to be vaccinated as part of the national COVID-19 vaccination program, and chose not to get tested or seek medical care if they experience symptoms. As a result, the use of oral ivermectin for the prevention or treatment of COVID-19 has the potential to spread the risk of infection throughout the community." What absolute poppycock! It's the opposite.

There are various protocols for taking ivermectin, one in particular developed by the truly eminent professor Thomas Borody of Sydney, and published over a year ago in August 2020. Borody was also an author of a paper on an ivermectin trial.

The group of Australian doctors treated patients in Sydney and Melbourne in July, August, and September with a protocol called the Ivermectin Triple Therapy (ITT), a combination of ivermectin, doxycycline, and zinc. It was highly successful with 600 patients treated, 5 admitted to hospital and zero deaths.

The equivalent control group in Australia of 600 people, not treated with triple therapy, resulted in 70 admitted to hospital and six deaths. Skerrit and his team will tell you vaccines "reduce the risk of severe infection and hospitalisation". It's another big lie. Even the CDC in the US now admit that vaccines don't stop infection or transmission. Ivermectin by contrast does. Look at the statistics from Uttar Pradesh where it is administered by the state to infected people.

The sensible, independent health authorities of Uttar Pradesh make our public health authorities and the politicians and media who listen to them, look like fools – and they are. All the pride of high public position and fear of losing it drives this gang to the point now where they defend the worst medical fascism since the days of Hitler, Stalin and Mao.
