Russia is fighting all of NATO, collecting evidence of US biolabs in Ukraine

Source: <https://tinyurl.com/mry4ku6h>

Editor, cairnsnews Apr 27 By Robert J Lee

NATO and the United States have been supplying arms “by the trainload” to fascist Ukrainian troops who are now into their third and last wave of soldiers and almost out of ammunition and food supplies while battling crack Russian troops..

There are at least three United States' bioweapons labs yet to be destroyed.

From the front line in a video hook up last night Cairns News reporter Robert Lee spoke through an interpreter to a Russian Cossack, Colonel Mr Yuri Komiyenko at Sakhalin near Kiev. He is based in Russia.

Image: Russian Cossack, Colonel Yuri Komiyenko near the front line at Kiev

This first-hand information flies in the face of the blatant propaganda being forced upon the western world by the ABC, BBC and NBC which the Colonel said is mostly lies.

“Russia essentially is fighting all of NATO comprising Germany, Poland the US and France are supplying arms to the Ukra-Nazi troops by the trainload and plane load,” Colonel Komiyenko said.

“Last night 47 French mercenaries surrendered, they were hiding underground in the Azov-steel industrial complex, the heart of Mariupol. The underground complex comprises eight stories and 24 klm of tunnels. The original Ukranian fighting force in Mariupol was 14,000 military personnel, it comprised the standard Ukranian forces, the fascist Ukro-Nazis and various NATO personnel from numerous countries.

“Many of the Ukrainians have been trained by NATO since 2014 and carry with them certificates of completion issued by NATO trainers. It took the Russian forces approximately 60 days to win this fight.

“The complex is now under the complete control of the Russians. This complex also housed a bioweapons lab bought to you by Zelensky a Ukrainian Oligarch, Hunter Biden and his friends. The Russians are now collating further proof of western war crimes against humanity."

Fresh in this morning

Last night during the interview an additional "52 French Foreign Legion troops crawled out of their sub-surface hiding places surrendering to the Russian forces."

The Russians estimate that the original French foreign legion fighting force was at least 300. The number of subterranean die-hards remaining is approximately 400 fighters and these are mostly Ukro-Nazi fanatics.

The primary subterranean entry point (there are multiple) was bombed using thermal explosives that generate heat to 2500C. Many of the Ukro-Nazis would never be identified, unless relatives are able to identify skulls.

The Ukrainians started to acquire fuel and other supplies from neighbouring countries such as Moldovi. These convoys became easy targets for precision strikes using orbiting satellites and drones to destroy convoys.

Unfortunately there have been numerous civilian casualties, many shot by the fascists when they flee their positions which are frequently buildings occupied by the civilian population such as apartment blocks, schools and hospitals. Often the Fascists herd the civilian population into the basements of such buildings and use them as human shields.

Upon fleeing they have been known to murder these civilians, Bucha is such an example. They will also gun down civilians in the street, people simply looking to find water or fire upon buildings containing civilians the Colonel said.

"Both the Ukrainian armies are shooting civilians after they hide in apartments and schools."

After taking Azov-Steel, the Russian armed forces are now engaging the Ukrainians on a larger scale in the Donbass region. When the fighting started in the Donbass region recently, there were initially 40,000 Ukranian fascist troops which have been reduced to 29,000.

They are now encircled by Russians and the Nazis have little food or ammunition. This large force is being systematically destroyed and the Ukrainian's are taking heavy losses.

Nikolaev city is surrounded by artillery and Russian troops are attempting to push the fascists out of there into Odessa similarly the Russians are pushing the Nazis out of Kharkiv towards Kiev.

“Every day the Russian and Donesk Republic forces gain three kilometres of territory,” the Cossack explained.

Russian forces are compiling evidence after they destroyed a large US underground biolab at the 11 square kilometre Mariupol Azov steel facility. Another biolab in Mariupol has been destroyed.

Known biolabs at Odessa, Suma and Kiev are yet to be destroyed.

The fascists are using trains to move military equipment, the same trains also carry civilian hostages. Yesterday alone 29 targets were bombed, destroying bridges, sidings and associated electrical infrastructure such as signal systems, but not the carriages to avoid casualties.

Ukrainian President Volodymyr Oleksandrovych Zelenskyy is faring as badly as his diminishing troops when a huge protest was staged in Kiev yesterday calling on the gay, former entertainer to resign.

“Eastern Ukrainians are lining up against him because everything he promised during the election has not eventuated,” the Colonel said.

When asked about the possibility of a ceasefire, the Colonel said, “No chance.”

“Russia twice offered a ceasefire and actually stepped back from Kiev as a gesture of goodwill, but the Nazis used this to regroup, while killing civilians at Bucha where there were real corpses and some crisis actors too.”

Contrary to disinformation being peddled by Australian correspondents in the battle zone, Russian troops have moved convoys of food relief for starving civilians and Russian soldiers have many times handed out their ration packs to civilians after being locked in basements for two weeks.

“We look at certain (TV)channels and just laugh at the disinformation,” he said.

At least 1.3 million refugees have fled into Russia and another 6.5 million have crossed into Poland and further. The Ukrainian population before the hostilities started was 40 million.

“This war and western sanctions has united all of Russia because we are being seen to save Ukraine,” he said.

Many Ukrainian soldiers were on drugs and had no real fighting spirit. Some were dressing as women attempting to get out through Russian lines, “but we busted them," he said.

Some captured facilities were found to contain huge amounts of European military armaments enough to equip all the Russian soldiers. The Colonel laughed, " we don't need to bring any of our own equipment, we just pick up what's been left and send it back to the Ukrainian forces at high speed."

Russian soldiers were armed mostly with AK47 assault rifles while the fascists complained the US M16 rifles they had been given often jammed and were useless.

Americans had also handed out thousands of 1958 vintage M14 carbines to Ukraine, many of which had been found in bombed out warehouses while the packaged RPG anti-tank weapons were 10 years old and most had flat batteries and were inoperable.

The Cossack said his troops collected some RPG's then "hot-wired" them and destroyed Ukranian tanks.

"In some of the Ukranian strongholds we have taken we found man-sized nappies for soldiers.

"This is now a standing joke among the Russian forces and their allies."
