Feminists in a Flap

AUSTRALIAN WOMEN'S PARTY IS RUN BY A MAN

from Australlian Prayer Network

<https://tinyurl.com/y2pjgi3l> from

<https://ausprayer.net.org.au/australian-womens-party-is-run-by-a-man/>

Feminists and transgenders are increasingly at odds as biological men attempt to appropriate women's gender. The media has reported, "Divvi De Vendre registered The Women's Party in January and is running candidates at the upcoming Federal Election but the Lismore based transgender woman has clashed with Sydney's feminist movement which has raised questions about laws governing the self-identification of gender." In an effort to shed light on the fact a man had started the political party claiming to represent women, Australian feminist Anna Kerr wrote an article entitled "Are women voters being duped?".

Her work was censored as it was deemed "insensitive and potentially offensive to the trans community". "Isn't it ironic that a biological male is claiming to be a woman but doesn't welcome transparency when it comes to biological facts?" said Kirralie Smith, spokeswoman for Binary. "Voters need to understand who they are voting for. They need facts so they can make informed decisions at the ballot box. Transgender people and real women are not the same. If people want to vote for a trans candidate that is their right, but candidates need to be honest about who they are," said Smith.

NEW GLOBAL RELIGIOUS FREEDOM MOVEMENT UNDERWAY

*By Australian Prayer Network
12/05/2019 International Newsletter*

A global movement to push for religious freedom rights worldwide has begun, U.S. Ambassador for Religious Freedom Sam Brownback said at a United Nations event focused on religious freedom. Along with Brownback, advocates from around the world were invited to speak about religious freedom issues impacting their communities. The event moderator was Monsignor Tomasz Grysa, deputy permanent observer of the Holy See to the U.N. He laid out the troubling landscape for religious freedom worldwide and said there has been a steady rise in persecution and discrimination against Christians, Muslims, Jews and other religious followers across the globe.

Brownback, a former U.S. senator, followed Grysa by asking specifically why there has been an increase in religious persecution worldwide when most countries have agreed to the U.N. Universal Declaration of Human Rights that is supposed to protect an individual's right to religious freedom. “80% of the world's population lives in a religiously restricted atmosphere,” Brownback said. “How can we tolerate this continuing situation? You just heard of countries, places and faith communities that are being persecuted when, in fact, they are guaranteed this right in most constitutions and by the U.N. Charter.” “Why do we tolerate this situation?”

A 2018 U.N. report found that there are 24 nations with official state religions that impose “very high” or “high” levels of restrictions on religious practices while another 11 countries with “favoured religions” have similar religious restrictions. Brownback stressed that there are “dire situations” facing many religious minority communities in countries that have agreed to the Universal Declaration of Human Rights... [He also] ...said that the U.S. is working with six different countries that are launching their own religious freedom roundtables similar to the one hosted by the U.S. government. Those round-tables will hopefully spark advocacy groups in those countries as well. Source: The Christian Post

IT IS AN "I" RELIGION

by Arnis Luks www.alor.org

Culture is the customary beliefs, social forms, and material traits of a racial, religious, or social group.

I have recently been reading Nesta H. Webster's “Louis XVI and Marie Antoinette - Before the Revolution”, (available in our online library), and was not surprised to read of the elites (prior to the revolution), constantly infighting and jostling for their own selfish ends. Note: Louis XVI and Marie Antoinette are both presented in a favourable light by the author.

The situation then, 1789, as now, 2019, is similar across the once free world. In fact, the current circumstances are actually a continuation of those same revolutionary forces originating from the “money power” [that Douglas Reed lays this out in his booklet, “The Grand Design”, available in our online library.

David Graeber in his book “Debt - The First 5000 Years” shows this same money power as always being active behind the scenes, even thousands of years ago. The difficulty in Nesta Webster’s historical narrative is that it is written, or thought of, as a “them” narrative, when it should be written, or thought of, as an “I” narrative.

In the Australian Federal election campaign, Labor, feeling that it is “in like Flynn”, is preparing to turn the socialist/centralist dial up to warp-speed with the promises of even more new taxes and strengthening of 18C (against freedom of speech). No question of independence, self reliance, tax relief, restoration of our manufacturing base for improved job security for the young, or freedom from irredeemable-debt. There is almost an ecstatic frenzy over what was once the great Australian nation. All new taxes translate to further government/ bureaucratic inroads into your personal life (tyranny). Look to China for this centralist prototype.

The Liberals, with their own brand of collectivism, staring at electoral oblivion, on the last day of Parliament passed GMO laws to further monopolise food production (tyranny). They failed to respond, were actively complicit, with the brutalising indoctrination of our very young through the education system and ensured the complete alignment with collectivist thinking of future generations of leaders through our university chairs.

The tyranny of the existing political / religious / industrial elites, imposing a foreign dogma that directly affects one’s job tenure and future employment prospects is on full display - political, religious and corporate fascism. The young voter, being offered ‘no future’ under a conservative government’s monopolising policies, are being educationally and psychologically directed to take the centralist-socialist bait...

The recent suppressions of thought, which under the banner of tolerance is in effect intolerance, is simply another form of totalitarian religious dogma. They, the elites, know what they believe, but we do not. Dogma is not taught as part of the liturgy. Quite a few are standing, looking up into the sky, waiting for the Lord’s return, instead of bringing about God’s Kingdom “in earth as in heaven”. The keys to the real kingdom have been hidden by a compliant religious order, orientated towards (end-times-dispensationalist) paganism. All have lost their way because we are not binding back to that which works - truth, - but rather repeating the communist experiment (and assured failure) because some think it “ought to work”. We are essentially back to first century Christianity with pagan (green or rainbow coloured) gods and open persecution of dissenters. The (re) building from the remnants, to regenerate, en-richen and re-write a new historical narrative awaits us all.

After having recently toured Tasmania, attending numerous meetings of diverse people, I'm of the view that there is still a remnant of sound-thinking individuals. Those prepared to exercise their responsibility to pursue correct policy, could garnish sufficient momentum to turn Australia's political, religious and industrial destiny around...

What Binds Peoples Together?

In the preamble to our Constitution (Humbly relying on the blessing of Almighty God), it is established that we are a Christian nation. Historically we have been able to 'hold things together' under the Christian Doctrine within the bounds of a Limited Constitutional Monarchy. To understand further read Dorothy L. Sayers' five excellent essays; available in our online Library.

Part V – Powers of the Parliament

51. Legislative powers of the Parliament
The Parliament shall, subject to this Constitution, have power to make laws for the peace, order, and good government of the Commonwealth with respect to: ...(iv) borrowing money on the public credit of the Commonwealth; ...(xii) currency, coinage, and legal tender; ...(xiii) banking, other than State banking; also State banking extending beyond the limits of the State concerned, the incorporation of banks, and the issue of paper money;...(xv) weights and measures;(xvi) bills of exchange and promissory notes;

Can We Agree To Work Together On Some Important Tasks?

After ensuring a sufficiency of food, clothing and shelter, perhaps we can together, agree to orientate the financial system to serve man, and not man serve the elites controlling the system. The Australian Constitution clearly directs the federal government to manage, not only the coinage of the realm, but also weights and measures. The financial system, as a reflection of the productive, distribution and consumption systems, (our material abundance), is not in equilibrium, as weights and measures should be. The financial system has been perverted to serve other purposes and needs to be 'administered back to equilibrium' to reflect the absolute material abundance around us.

Perhaps we can together, agree to regain control of the politicians in such a fashion that they will yield to the will of the electorate instead of the lobbyists, donors and the ultra-big-end of town. Each elector must figure out what 'sanctions' work best for their representative to ensure a "continuous feedback mechanism" of their representative's performance. For this election independent Senators are our best hope. See Magna Carta and Citizens Initiative, Referenda and Recall for more information - available in our online Library. Perhaps we can together, agree to encourage some brave ecclesiastical individuals to break away from their comfort zone and enter the fray, to 'bind back' to historical dogma, to speak out about "limited government". Render unto Caesar the things that are Caesar's and unto God the things that are God's. You cannot serve God and mammon...

YESHUA REMEMBRANCE SERVICE

Leader: ³¹ "Here, the days are coming," says Y'HoVaH, "when I will make a new Covenant with the house of Isra'el and with the house of Y'hudah. ³² It will not be like the covenant I made with their fathers on the day I took them by their hand and brought them out of the land of Egypt; because they, for their part violated My Covenant, even though I, for my part, was a husband to them," says Y'HoVaH. ³³ "For this is the Covenant I will make with the house of Israel after those days," says Y'HoVaH, "I will put My Torah within them and write it on their hearts; I will be their Elohim, and they will be My people. (Yirem'yahu ~Jeremiah 31:31-33)

Congregation: Isa 12:2 "See! Elohim is my salvation; I am confident and unafraid; for Y'HoVaH Elohim is my strength and my song, and He has become my salvation!" Isa 12:3 Then you will joyfully draw water from the springs of salvation. Ps 3:8 Victory comes from Y'HoVaH; may Your blessing rest on Your people. Ps 46:7 Y'HoVaH Tzva'ot is with us, our fortress, the Elohim of Ya'akov.

Leader: "Baruch ata Y'HoVaH, Eloheinu Melech Ha'olam, ha motze lechem m'in ha eretz."

Divide Chullah ~platted loaf

Congregation: "Blessed are You Y'HoVaH our Elohim, King of the Universe who has brought forth bread from the earth. Y'HoVaH Tzva'ot, how happy is anyone who trusts in You! (Ps 84:12). Give victory Y'HoVaH! Let the King answer us the day we call. (Ps 20:9) I will take the cup of redemption and call upon the Name, Y'HoVaH. (Ps 116:13).

Leader: (with cup in right hand) "The cup of deliverance I raise and in the Name of Y'HoVaH, Yeshua HaMashiach, I call: Baruch atah Y'HoVaH, Eloheinu Melech, ha'olam, boray p'ri ha'gafen." (Replace cup with spices)

Congregation: Blessed are You, Y'HoVaH our Elohim, King of the universe, who creates the fruit of the vine.

Leader: Lifting spice container in right hand, says... "Baruch atah Y'HoVaH, Eloheinu Melech ha'olam, boray meene besamim."

Congregation: Blessed are You, Y'HoVaH our Elohim, King of the universe, who creates the various spices.

Leader: As Avram gave to Malki-Tzedek according to B'reshet ~Genesis 14:18-20, let us all come, make our offering, take some Chullah; smell the spices; take your cup and return to your seats and wait, so we can partake together.

Leader: Pray in relation to what Yeshua has done in connection with the day's Torah portion. "Let us eat and drink together".

Aharonic Blessing (Hebrew & English) from Tamar & Malachi (Num 6:22-27)

Leader: Our Abba and Elohim of our fathers, we thank you for the joy and rest of this Shabbat. May the coming week bring gladness & peace, health & achievement. Like the fragrance of the besamim, we pray that the days ahead bring sweetness to our lives and the lives of our loved ones. May the peace, which we are enjoying linger till we gather for Shabbat next week. We ask this in Yeshua's name, Amein.
