AUSTRALIA'S ENVIRONMENTAL ARSONISTS

By James Reed - www.ALOR.org

On Target 17/01/2020

While the media in Australia are going into overdrive about the bushfires being caused by climate change, we need to turn to overseas sources to get some sanity, and uncommon sense. Here is James Delingpole at Breitbart.com, making the sensible argument that it was, and still is, the environmental policies of the largely Leftist environmentalist system and Greens, that allowed the massive build-up of highly flammable dried vegetation:

<https://www.naturalnews.com/2020-01-05-environmentalists-arsonists-australia-policies-forest.html>

“As Paul Homewood pointed out last month, there has been no significant long-term decrease in rainfall or increase in temperatures in the affected regions. Yes, it has been dry in New South Wales (where most of the worst fires are), but there have been several years, especially pre-1960, when it was drier. The same applies to temperature. Yes, this has been a hot spring in New South Wales. But there have been times when it has been much hotter — making a nonsense of all stories in the Australian media about temperatures being the hottest ever: Neither is the monthly average of 38.0C a record high. The three years from 1899 to 1901 all saw average December mean maximum temperatures well above 38.0C.

Since the station moved to the airport in 1993, 38C has only been exceeded once until this year, that was in 2005, when it averaged 38.5C, still well below the December 1899 when the mean was 39.9C. So, to be clear, there is zero evidence of any change in climatic conditions that might have increased the likelihood or severity of these bush fires. This is not — repeat NOT — a man-made climate change story, and anyone who claims otherwise is either a gullible idiot or a lying charlatan”. Thus, the culture of the new environmental religion, along with the perennial problem of feral crazies who like to see things light up, creates the perfect storm leading to the catastrophic fires we are living through and, as usual, the political system will conveniently blame climate change, while ignoring the real causes.

AUSTRALIA'S HOTTEST DAY ON RECORD 1828

On Target 17/01/2020 www.ALOR.org

It is a pity that our knowledge of History and Science is at such a low level in the community that we are being led to believe that we have a climate emergency and that CO2 is the villain! Australia's Hottest Day on Record 1828. Not 2019, BUT 1828 at a blistering 129°F (53.9 °C)

Back before man-made climate change was frying Australia, when CO2 was around 300ppm, the continent savoured an ideal pre-industrial climate... RIGHT? This is the kind of climate we are spending $10bn per annum to get back to... Right again?

We are told today's climate has more records and more extremes than times gone by, but the few records we have from the early 1800s are eye-popping.

Things were not just hotter, but so wildly hot it burst thermometers. The earliest temperature records we have show that Australia was a land of shocking heatwaves and droughts, except for when it was bitterly cold or raging in flood.

In other words, nothing has changed, except possibly things might not be quite so hot now! Silliggy (Lance Pidgeon) has been researching records from early explorers and from newspapers. What he's uncovered is fascinating! It's as if history is being erased!

For all that we hear about recent record-breaking climate extremes, records that are equally extreme, and sometimes even more so, are ignored. In January 1896 a savage blast "like a furnace" stretched across Australia from east to west and lasted for weeks.

The death toll reached 437 people in the eastern states. Newspaper reports showed that in Bourke the heat approached 120°F (48.9°C) on three days.

The maximum at or above 102 degrees F (38.9°C) for 24 days straight! Use the several [following] links ... to read the news reports at the time for yourself ...

1. By Tuesday Jan 14, people were reported falling dead in the streets. <http://trove.nla.gov.au/ndp/del/article/44132389?zoomLevel=5>

2. Unable to sleep, people in Brewarrina walked the streets at night for hours, thermometers recorded 109F (42.8°C) at midnight. <http://trove.nla.gov.au/ndp/del/article/44159099?zoomLevel=5>

3. Overnight, the temperature did not fall below 103°F. (39.4°C)

4. On Jan 18 in Wilcannia, five deaths were recorded in one day, the hospitals were overcrowded and reports said that "more deaths are hourly expected". <http://trove.nla.gov.au/ndp/del/article/14033576?zoomLevel=5>

5. By January 24, in Bourke, many businesses had shut down (almost everything bar the hotels). <http://trove.nla.gov.au/ndp/del/article/75263800>

6. Panic stricken Australians were fleeing to the hills in climate refugee trains.

<http://trove.nla.gov.au/ndp/del/article/8888573?zoomLevel=6>

<http://trove.nla.gov.au/ndp/del/article/79288908?zoomLevel=5>

As reported at the time, the government felt the situation was so serious that to save lives and ease the suffering of its citizens they added cheaper train services. What I found most interesting about this was the skill, dedication and length of meteorological data taken in the 1800s. When our climate is “the most important moral challenge” why is there so little interest in our longest and oldest data?

Who knew that one of the most meticulous and detailed temperature records in the world from the 1800s comes from Adelaide, largely thanks to Sir Charles Todd. The West Terrace site in Adelaide was one of the best in the world at the time, and provides accurate historic temperatures from “Australia's first permanent weather bureau <http://www.rahs.org.au/history-resources/thefirst-weather-bureau/> at Adelaide in 1856”.

Rainfall records even appear to go as far back as 1839. Lance Pidgeon went delving into the National Archives and was surprised at what he found. The media are in overdrive, making out that “the extreme heat is the new normal” in Australia.

You can't blame those high records on man-made global warming!

Conspiracy Revelation TAVISTOCK INSTITUTE

Proudly Serving A One World Government

Published on 3. Januar 2020

“For over a century The Tavistock Institute of Human Relations in England has worked behind the scenes to lay the groundwork for a one world government. It has relentlessly pushed propaganda that predicts the end of Western civilization, adopted from the work of German philosopher Oswald Spengler. Under this secretive institute's direction, the British elite and their American counterparts perfected the art of propaganda and successfully used this to get America involved in a war her people opposed. Tavistock is all about shaping opinion, culture, and gaining political consensus for a one world government and total domination. Kategorie”

“He was the nephew of Sigmund Freud. Bernays called the effort to brainwash the public psychological warfare. In 1937 Tavistock based its operations on german philosopher Oswald Spengler book the decline of the West... Tavistock took what it wanted from Spangler; the theory civilization is doomed and must be replaced with a different system, ... a one-world globalist totalitarian government set on reducing population and controlling all aspects of society.

At its core Spengler's thesis holds that alien hordes will arrive in America in increasing numbers thus leading to a fall of Western civilization and its culture law and ethics, ...

In Europe large numbers of Africans, Arabs and others are flooding the continent, resulting in social and political chaos, as two widely different cultures clash. This highly disruptive force has resulted in severe political polarization and the rise of nationalist groups opposed to continued immigration and Asylum status."

"..and the British oligarchy represented by the banker JP Morgan. In 1957 Dr. William Sargent of the Tavistock Institute who reportedly worked in tandem with the CIA on its MKULTRA brainwashing experiments at the time wrote a book with an improbable title: Battle for the mind, a physiology of conversion and brainwashing: How evangelists, psychiatrists, politicians and medicine men can change your beliefs and behavior. Sargent explains how alien beliefs can be implanted in the human brain through induced fear, anger and excitement."

"Jim Keith the author of mass control, engineering human consciousness describes Tavistock as a collaborative effort of British military intelligence and the psychiatric establishment. Keith writes that Tavistock influence reaches the mass corporate media, corporations, governments and the psychiatric establishment.

Coleman has said the moral spiritual, racial, economic, cultural and intellectual bankruptcy we are now in the midst of today is the product of a carefully planned Tavistock program in 1928.

Bernays wrote in his book "Propaganda" that the conscious and intelligent manipulation of the organized habits and opinions of the masses is an important element in democratic society, those who manipulate this unseen mechanism of society constitute an invisible government, which is the true ruling power of the country.

This legacy of lies and manipulation in the name of war and a totalitarian world government is alive and well today.

Every day we are slammed with fake news guiding us along a pre-arranged path toward our ultimate enslavement and the prospect of never-ending war and conflict. ... Henry Kissinger so aptly noted if the orchestrated crisis or a number of them piled one upon the other are effective the American people will run to the state and beg for protection."
