DEPOPULATION? VACCINE DATA ANALYSIS BY DR. SHANKARA CHETTY WITH PREDICTIONS ABOUT WHAT WILL HAPPEN!

Source: <http://thenewstart.online/page/vol3janfeb11#>

By 2021 the whole world was convinced that the only means of preventing deaths from Covid-19 was multiple vaccinations.

We were so obsessive about this that effective treatments for it were not on the media's radar.

Among the many testaments of treatments is Dr. Shankara Chetty, who successfully treated 7,000 COVID-19 Patients - 0 Deaths from the South African medico Dr Chetty.

His explanation that the inflammatory phase of the viral infection beginning on day eight is, in fact, an allergic reaction due to viral debris, i.e., the spike protein.

His recommendation of easily obtainable drugs such as promethazine (phenegan - you can get this antihistamine at any pharmacy in Australia without a prescription) to treat what is essentially pneumonitis [inflammation of lung tissue] would appear to be validated by his track record: Seven thousand patients treated and ... not only no deaths, but no

Intensive Care Unit admissions and no hospitalisations.

BioClandestine, [27/03/2022 8:11 AM] see <https://t.me/bioclandestine/164>

Anons knew the Biden family are directly involved in the funding of dangerous biological research on deadly pathogens in Ukraine. As suspected, all of those details are on Hunter's laptop. The hookers and cocaine is merely the tip of the iceberg. The MSM would rather you see that than see what they are ACTUALLY worried about. The real juice on the laptop are the emails proving that the sitting US President is using his son as a proxy to fund bioweapons research in Ukraine. The same deep state network involved in creating C19.

The reason the Hunter Biden laptop is back in the news cycle, is because it's contents are a key component in the war in Ukraine. Russia claims it moved into Ukraine because the US molecularly altered deadly pathogens to target Russian citizens at these labs in Russia. Putin is directly accusing Biden of planning biological genocide on his people.

Everyone has been asking how we can prove all this. There would need to be a paper trail. Well here it is. The Metabiota and Rosemont Seneca emails show direct evidence that prominent Democrat politicians are using DoD funding for biolabs in Ukraine. Russia went to war over this.

The details are slowly being dripped out. Digestible chunks for the normies to fully grasp the severity and gravity of the situation. This is calculated.

Russia easily could have presented all of this in their first meeting before the UN Security Council, but it was never about convincing the corrupt countries at the UN, but rather convincing THE PEOPLE of what is going on. Court of public opinion. A story is being told and they are strategically spreading out the dissemination of the details so the media can't cover it up all at once. While simultaneously outing all the corrupt trying to cover this up.

We went from "there are no bioabs in Ukraine" to "The US President is using his son as a proxy to funnel US DoD funds to create bioweapons to target Russian citizens".

This reality cannot be denied. All that is remaining from the US media/gov is denial. Do not allow them this comfort. Do not let them continue to take part in this farce. Do not allow the normies to ignore this. Biden and many in the US establishment were planning genocide via molecularly altered pathogens. Then went great lengths to cover it up.

The history books will not be kind to this evil. Justice is the only way forward. <https://www.dailymail.co.uk/news/article-10652127/Hunter-Biden-helped-secure-millions-funding-military-biotech-research-program-Ukraine.html>

Gold Coast Covid ward empty for months while vaxx casualties stream in

by Editor, cairnsnews Previously posted Dec 3, 2021. Letter to the Editor

A QUEENSLAND nursing whistleblower broke down in front of a meeting on the Gold Coast on Thursday night, telling of the horrors of vaccine adverse events including stillbirths, deformed babies, blood clots and cancer remissions reversed.

The 30-year nursing veteran Debbie Jane Harris, who has resigned from her profession, said there had been thousands of adverse events while Gold Coast University Hospital had seen only six Covid-positive cases in the ICU in 20 months. “All of those patients survived and were discharged and some were double vaccinated,” she said.

Harris went on to describe how a special Covid ward at the hospital been locked up and left empty for “months and months and months”. At the same time health officials, politicians and media in Queensland were claiming hospitals were being overloaded with Covid cases.

Harris said she declined to get a vaccination because she could not give informed consent due to a lack of data. Dr Camm, a recently retired doctor from Logan, also said there was insufficient data on the vaccines.

Dr Camm also spoke on the censorship of doctors by the Australian Health Practitioners Regulatory Agency (AHPRA), which has threatened disciplinary action, including deregistration, against doctors who speak out against the vaccine rollout policy. At the same time governments say people with questions about vaccines should see their Gps.

Harris said nurses had received the same directive and were also told their social media would be monitored. They had also been encouraged to dox in any colleagues involved in spreading anti-vaccine information.

The Gold Coast church venue in Carrara was packed to the rafters on Thursday night as business people and others gathered to fight back against the Morrison-enabled Palaszczuk vaccine mandate by rallying businesses that are determined to follow a non-discriminatory path.

The organisers, Undivided Gold Coast, also made available an employment network for unvaccinated people who had lost jobs. A special app will also allow people to locate non-discriminatory businesses.

The meeting also heard from an organisation called the Red Unions, which is a group of legally established alternative unions for teachers, doctors, police, and independent workers union. A small business union is also being considered.

Senator Malcolm Roberts told the meeting he was aware of four Queensland councils who were rejecting the vaccine mandate. He said he had put a series of questions on Covid response issues in a letter to Palaszczuk. She sent a two-page letter back but failed to answer any of the questions.

He also accused TGA head Skerritt of covering up post-vaccination death statistics. He said when he asked Skerritt about the 564 reported post vaccination deaths, he “exploded” and claimed the actual number was nine. Roberts said Skerritt, in a letter, tried to bully him into not speaking about Covid treatments by threatening to use some obscure power.

Roberts wrote back telling Skerritt to stop illegally threatening his right as an Australian Senator to political communication. He also told Skerritt “the government has blood on its hands for refusing ivermectin (treatment).”
